DIARY NOTES

DD/S 14 December 1970

* *

25X1A [redacted] Dr. Tietjen called to advise this date that the subject is a GS-13 employee at TSD who has been with the Agency for 15 years. He has a long history of medical difficulties and was being given a return to duty examination. He has been on a conditional medical status. On 4 25X1A December he met with [redacted] who suggested to him the possibility of disability retirement. The subject was not receptive to this approach and apparently went to his private doctor who in turn referred subject to a local law firm. A letter has been addressed by that law firm to Mr. Helms 25X1A dated December 12 requesting that the subject's legal representative be present at a meeting that [redacted] was to have with [redacted] on Monday, 25X1A 14 December. While no Agency position has been taken and no formal action 25X1A toward disability retirement has been initiated [redacted] taking a formal adversary position on a suggestion offered by [redacted] Dr. Tietjen is immediately notifying the Office of Personnel and the General Counsel and will advise of what the next course of action may be.
